Spring has Finally Sprung

With the arrival of the spring season comes much deserved warm weather for Central New Yorkers. Unfortunately, warm weather in middle school also brings with it dress code violations. While we certainly want the students at SRM to feel free to express themselves with personal style, we also ask that students and parents remember that a school is a place of business; we are in the business of teaching and learning. As such, we expect students to come to school dressed for business. We appreciate your anticipated support.

Below is the LCSD Student Dress Code:

All students are expected to give attention to personal grooming and to dress appropriately for school and school functions. Students and their parents have the primary responsibility for acceptable student appearance. All district personnel should exemplify and reinforce acceptable student dress thereby helping students develop an understanding of appropriate appearance in the school setting. The intent of the dress code is to foster an environment that is sanitary, safe, and conducive to teaching and learning. It is also intended to provide guidance to prepare students for their role in the workplace and society.

A student’s dress, grooming, and appearance shall:

1. Be safe, and not disrupt or interfere with the educational process.

2. Not include any item that is vulgar, obscene, libelous, or that denigrates another’s race, color, religion, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability or any other legally protected status.

3. Not promote and/or endorse the use of alcohol, tobacco, or illegal drugs, and/or encourage other illegal or violent activities.

Students who violate the student dress code shall be required to modify their appearance by removing the offending item, and if necessary, replacing it with an acceptable item. Any student who refuses to do so shall be subject to discipline. Any student who repeatedly fails to comply with the dress code shall be considered insubordinate and shall be subject to further discipline.
